sellify
Nichts leichter als das.

Dr. Oetker goes sellify.

.....

Dr. Oetker's existing CRM system had to be optimized to meet all the requirements of the various departments. Particularly important here was the classic processing of consumer data as well as the organization of the "Dr. Oetker World" visitor center. sellify offered all the necessary features and was also adaptable to individual wishes.

Sales organization in retail.

Made easy with sellify.

"I would especially like to commend the great support."

sellify is the optimal application for our requirements. Both external consumer communication and internal processes can be optimally mapped with it. The sellify support is also convincing on all levels: Thanks to the close cooperation with the team of business//acts, all requests can be checked immediately and optimized if possible.

With sellify, you have a real competitive advantage, because this lean software provides a central and clear organization during operation, so that everything is easier for you. This saves you a lot of time, nerves and money.
